

Fighting for Children's Rights

FLORIDA DEPENDENCY LAW CENTER (FDLC)

Improving outcomes for Florida's at-risk children by helping lawyers and judges.

FREE RESOURCES & TOOLS FOR JUDGES & LAWYERS HANDLING DEPENDENCY AND DELINQUENCY CASES

FDLC assists judges and lawyers who handle dependency and delinquency cases by offering legal resources, secure communications, and a platform for pro bono lawyers to offer and receive help.

Online LEGAL RESOURCES

Resources organized by topic.

Secure Tools for COMMUNICATION

Judges and lawyers connect with colleagues.

Case Help PRO BONO

Volunteer or seek help from a network of pro bono lawyers

COMMUNICATION TOOLS

Join forces with colleagues with tools that are private, secure, and limited by profession:

- Colleague Connection email networks
- Discussion Boards
- Document Vaults

STATEWIDE PRO BONO NETWORK

Join the statewide network of attorneys willing to provide pro bono services, including mentoring and assisting colleagues, in areas such as:

- Adoption
- Appellate Law
- Education
- Immigration
- Independent Living
- Mentoring / Co-counseling
- Relative & Non Relative Placements
- Representation of Dependent Children

ONLINE LEGAL RESOURCE CENTER

- Articles / Papers
- Brief Bank
- Conference Calendar
- Expert Witness Databank
- Legal Forms
- Links
- Manuals
- Medical / Psychological References
- Practice Tips
- Rules

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

- Join Florida Dependency Law Center. www.FloridaDependencyLawCenter.org
- Join Colleague Connection
- Sign up for webinars to learn how to effectively navigate FDLC and receive 1 hour technology CLE credit. Check out Recent News page for upcoming dates.